Herakles Inside & Outside the Church: from the first Apologists to the end of the Quattrocento

The first of four volumes associated with Emma Stafford’s Hercules Project, this examines the appropriation of the ancient Greek hero Herakles in Christian and other religious texts and visual arts from Late Antiquity to the Renaissance.

Contents

i. Making Connections: the early years
• Arlene Allan, Herakles, ‘Christ-curious’ Greeks and Revelation 5
• Eva Anagnostou-Laoutides, The Tides of Virtue …and Vice: Herakles among the Christians

ii. Appropriation: Verbal
• Alexandra Eppinger, Herakles/Hercules: exemplum virtutis for Christian emperors
• Brian Sowers, Herculean Centos: Myth, polemics, and the crucified hero in late antiquity
• Andrew Mellas, Herakleios or Herakles? Panegyric and pathopoeia in George of Pisidia’s Heraklias
• Eva Anagnostou-Laoutides, Herakles in Byzantium: Heracles and Digenis Akritas
• Giampiero Scafoglio, Dante’s Hercules

iii. Appropriation: Visual
• Ivana Čapeta Rakić, The Constellation of Hercules and his Struggle with the Nemean Lion on Two Romanesque Reliefs from Split Cathedral
• Lenia Kouneni, From Antiquity to Byzantium to Late Medieval Italy: Hercules on the façade of San Marco
• Tom Sienkewicz, Herculean Transformations of Herculean Fortitude in Florence
• Giuseppe Capriotti, Ovid’s Hercules in 1497: a Greek hero in the Metamorphoses translation by Giovanni de’ Bonsignori and in his woodcuts
• Gail Tatham, Hercules in the hypogeum of Via Dino Compagni, Rome

iv. Beyond the Church
• Cary MacMahon, Wearing the Hero on Your Sleeve: piecing together the materials of the Heraklean myth in late Roman Egypt
• Karl Galinsky, Herakles Vajrapani, the Companion of Buddha

Editors: Arlene Allan (Otago), Eva Anagnostou-Laoutides (Macquarie) & Emma Stafford (Leeds)

Abstracts: https://herculesproject.leeds.ac.uk/publications/herakles-inside-and-outside-the-church/